ENTRY CONDITIONS AND RULES

1. Entry into competition event is conditioned upon donating to the beneficiary (People Helping People) a minimum of two cases of each varietal wine to be entered. One case will be used for tasting and judging. One case will be auctioned to the public. Donation receipts will be mailed to entrants acknowledging amount and description of wines furnished.
2. People Helping People will obtain a non-profit organization's "Special Daily Wine" License from the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in order to conduct the event.
3. All bottles must be 750 ml.
4. All bottles must be labeled with the name of winemaker, class, sub class, and wine variety. See attached list. Labels may include appellation and vintage. Varietals: 75% of stated wine; Appellation: 95% or more of stated appellation; Vintage: 95% of stated year.
5. Judges will be professional winemakers, restaurateurs and/or wine writers. Judges scores are final.
6. Awards by judges will be presented for first place in each variety, best of class, and best of show. Awards will be announced prior to 3PM. Judges reserve the right to combine sub classes based upon number of entries.
7. All competitors must be amateur winemakers at least 21 years of age. An amateur is a person not employed by a commercial winery in a winemaking capacity or not an owner, except for stockholders.
8. Eligible wines must be produced without the assistance of a commercial winery or professional winemaker. Grapes crushed at or unfermented grape juice from a commercial winery may be used.
9. Entry forms must be received by close of business on July 27th, 2012.
10. Competitors must arrive with their wines between 12- 1 PM on event day in order to allow time to set up for tasting and furnish bottle for judging. Confirmation of entry and directions to event will be furnished.

11. Tables, chairs, table cloths, ice, icing buckets, residue buckets, logo glasses, appetizers, plates, and name cards will be provided. Spaces will be pre-assigned. Note this is an outdoor event.
